Passover

Jesus is in the home of Simon the leper and the woman pours perfume on His head two days before the Passover. Matt 26:2, 7

Seven days of Unleavened Bread

He and the disciples take the Passover on the evening of the 14th (after sundown on the 13th Nisan (Tuesday). He sends his disciples to arrange accommodation for the Passover.

Sun Mon Tues Wed

Christ rose from the dead Saturday night at sundown. Exactly as He said He would. Matt 12:40

The month of Nisan is the first month of the year. It begins with a new moon. Most competent astronomers can calculate the date for the new moon that month/year. The Passover is 14 days later.

THREE DAYS AND THREE NIGHTS

The High-day Sabbath - the First Day of Unleavened Bread.

Jesus fulfilled the prophecy of Jonah exactly as He said! Matt 12:40

Software for the Hebrew Calendar is available on the Internet for checking which day of the week the Passover fell on in 30AD.

Christ died just prior to sundown on the 14th Nisan (Wednesday)

AFTER the Sabbath was over, the women brought spices to anoint Jesus body. Mark 16:1

BEFORE the Sabbath the women prepared the spices and rested on the Sabbath. Luke 23:56
